- Extension bookings must be requested 4 months before departure at absolute latest.
- Changing your flight from the group booking is subject to flight availability, and at the discretion of the airline.
- Limits often apply to the number of seats that can be changed by the airline. The earlier a change is requested the better. There is no guarantee that a request made by the 4-month deadline will be successful if this limit has already been reached. Changes are made on a first-come first-served basis.
- Where flight availability is very limited, the airline may impose a surcharge which is payable by you if you decide to proceed, even if requested before the 4-month deadline.
- Late requests are likely to incur additional charges by the airline, payable by you if you decide to proceed.
- Once your new flight arrangements have been confirmed, any further charges will each be subject to a £75 non-refundable administration charge. In urgent cases DA will endeavour to help but cannot guarantee flight availability.
- The extension deposit is non-refundable.
- Your return flight will be changed as detailed in the extension itinerary. If you wish to extend further to travel independently, you must complete the separate flight extension form and return it together with this form
- You will be invoiced for final payment of the extension 10 weeks before departure. Failure to pay promptly may jeopardise your booking.
- If you have to cancel, you agree to notify us in writing immediately and pay the cancellation charges as detailed below:
 - More than 56 days prior to departure: loss of deposit
 - 56 – 29 days prior to departure: 50% of Extension Trip Cost
